

A DAY IN YELLOW WITH DAVE ZABRISKIE

"Fastest Stage Winner in the Tour de France History"

50 KM Ride & Dinner with professional cyclist and Team CSC member, Dave Zabriskie
Saturday, November 19, 2005 Victoria, British Columbia

About Dave Zabriskie

Dave Zabriskie grew up and began his cycling career in Utah. Dave turned pro in 2001 and rode alongside Lance Armstrong on the US Postal Team before moving to CSC in 2004.

Dave is the only American cyclist besides Lance Armstrong and Greg Lemond ever to wear the Yellow Jersey in the Tour de France. Dave's winning time-trial in the opening prologue of the 2005 Tour de France was the fastest recorded time in over 100 years of Tour de France history. Dave is the only American to win stages in all three Grand Tours including the Tour de France, Giro D'Italia and the Tour of Spain.

Be 1 of 30 cyclists to join professional racer Dave Zabriskie on a brisk and scenic 50-km ride during the annual Team Giga-Bike fundraising event. Team Giga-Bike offers you a rare opportunity to ride shoulder-to-shoulder with the fastest Tour de France stage winner in history while supporting your local Vancouver Island junior espoir development team.

After the ride, enjoy a private dinner at Willie's Bakery at the head table with Dave Zabriskie. Enjoy the food while socializing with Dave and other yellow-jersey sponsor participants. Team Giga-Bike will unveil its new sponsors and team for the 2006 season during dinner.

After dinner, join Dave Zabriskie for a private screening of the documentary, Overcoming, as it Tracks Team CSC's 2004 Season.
